Dear parents and carers,

Attendance Update.

This week we have more good news about our overall attendance. Last week the attendance in KS1 and KS2 was 97.7%, which is not only above the national minimum expectation of 96.5% and was also an increase on the previous week's attendance (96.6%). Well done to everyone who has made this improvement possible.

The following classes had the best in attendance in KS1 & KS2 this week:

- KS1: McGivern Class with 99.5% attendance. This is excellent, well done for the second week running!
- KS2: Smith Class with 99% attendance. This is excellent, congratulations.

Here is the attendance for the other classes:

- ❖ KS1: Hughes Class 96.7% Kelly Class 97.1% (well done, this is an improvement!); Karlsson Class 98.9% (well done, this is an improvement!);
- ❖ KS2: Alecock Class 97.3% (well done, this is an improvement!); Alikhan Class 98.4%; Clemson Class 95.4%; Golden Class 96.4%; Brunette Class 98.3% (well done, this is an improvement!).

Punctuality Update.

There were 29 late arrivals at Falconbrook Last week, which was an improvement on the week before when we had 49.

Thank you to everyone who helped to make this improvement.

The following classes had the best punctuality last week:

- In KS1: Hughes Class with 2 late arrivals and Kelly Class with 2 late arrivals.
- In KS2: Alecock Class with 1 late arrival and Clemson Class with 1 late arrival.

There were improvements in punctuality in most other classes too. Keep it up!

Below is the number of late arrivals in the rest of the classes:

- KS1: Karlsson Class 5 lates; McGivern Class 5 lates.
- KS2: Smith Class 3 lates; Alikhan Class 6 lates; Golden Class 2 lates; Brunette Class 2 lates.

World Book Day at Falconbrook

On Friday 10th March we celebrated World Book Day at Falconbrook. Many children and adults came to school dressed as a favourite character from a book. The children also took part in a range of special reading activities which included parent reading morning; reading buddy sessions (older children and younger children reading together); visits to York Gardens Library; a special World Book Day assembly and other fun reading activities in classes.

World Book Day Celebrations at Falconbrook School

More photographs of the children and adults celebrating World Book Day can be seen on the playground screen and the school reception screen.

Thank you to Ms Karlsson for arranging this very special day for us all to enjoy.

RED NOSE DAY

Friday 24th March

Children and adults are invited to come to school wearing something red, and pay £1.

This could be a red nose, a red top, red trousers or red hair !

It's up to you.

We will also have some red noses for sale in the school office from Monday 20th March.

All money raised will be donated to the Red Nose Charity.

Falconbrook School is a voucher partner for the Wandsworth Food Bank.

If you would like to know more about this please speak to Mrs Smith, or Mrs Pieniek-Jones or Mrs Pilkington.
